Box 154 Sep-Nov 1888

AHR

In your reply, please quote above initials.

TREASURY OF THE UNITED STATES,

WASHINGTON, September 12, 1888.

To the

Superintendent Mint U.S.,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I have to advise that one bag of the last shipment of standard silver dollars received yesterday, was found one dollar short and bag in good condition, but too late to inform you yesterday.

I will thank you to forward one dollar to make good the shortage.

Respectfully yours,

James N. Tyner

Treasurer U.S.

Box 154 Sep-Nov 1888

Treasy U.S.
Washington D.C.
Sept 12. 1888

James W. Hyatt.
Treasr

Requests $1. forwarded to make good shortage in bag of Std Silver Dollars received yesterday.

RECEIVED
SEP 13 1888
U. S. MINT, PHILA.

Box 154 Sep-Nov 1888

In your reply, please quote above initials.

TREASURY OF THE UNITED STATES,

WASHINGTON, September 12, 1888.

Daniel M. Fox,

Superintendent Mint U.S.,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

In the standards received from you to-day a bag was found $1 over.

If agreeable to you, the pieces "over" will be retained until the completion of the transfer order, and then returned or credited in payment of "shorts," should any be found in the future, notice of which you would be advised when found.

Respectfully yours,

Jas. W. Hyatt

Treasurer U.S.

Box 154 Sep-Nov 1888

Treasy U. S.
Washington. D.C
Sept 12. 1888.

James W. Hyatt
Chair

$1. found over in bag of
$1 bu recd today.
Suggests retaining piece
found "over" until completion of S.O. & returned or credited in payment of "shorts".

RECEIVED
SEP 13 1888
U. S. MINT, PHILA.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 154

[Letter One:]
[Abstract:] Requests $1 forwarded to make good shortage in bag of St'd. Silver Dollars received yesterday.

A.L.R.
In your reply, please quote above initials.

Treasury of the United States,
Washington,
September 12, 1888

To the Superintendent Mint U.S.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I have to advise that one bag of the last shipment of standard silver dollars received yesterday, was found one dollar short and bag in good condition, but too late to inform you yesterday. I will thank you to forward one dollar to make good the shortage.

Respectfully yours,
James W. Hyatt
Treasurer U.S.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 154

[Letter Two:]
[Abstract:] $1 found over in bag of St'd rec'd. today. Suggests retaining pieces found "over" until completion…

T.
In your reply, please quote above initials.

Treasury of the United States,
Washington,
September 12, 1888

Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent Mint U.S.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

In the standards received from you to-day a bag was found $1 over.

If agreeable to you, the pieces "over" will be retained until the completion of the transfer order, and then returned or credited in payment of "shorts", should any be found in the future, notice of which you would be advised when found.

Respectfully yours,
James W. Hyatt
Treasurer U.S.